Top to bottom, this young heifer has twist genetics that will please even the most discerning eye and just look at that brindle. She has the potential to be the most exciting heifer to come along in years. Her sire, M2 Rifleman, combined with her dam, Hubbells Fine Catch, bring together the most sought after, top money earning genetics in the industry today. Heifers with these genetics are bringing price tags north of $20,000, and at least one
